PHBA YOUTH, OPEN AND AMATEUR WORLD HORSE SHOWS ARE HELD IN TUNICA, MISSISSIPPI IN JULY.

MEMBERSHIP TYPES

Membership Required to Show. All of the owner(s) of a horse, as listed on the horse's current PHBA registration certificate (including but not limited to: spouses, partners) and the exhibitor(s) must be a current member(s) of PHBA or PHBA-Y, in order to show and for PHBA to tabulate the horse's show points in the open, youth, youth novice, amateur, amateur select or novice amateur divisions and to be eligible for any and all awards and/or titles. PHBA Amateur and Novice-Amateur memberships. Persons nineteen (19) years of age or older who meet the eligibility requirements as outlined in the Amateur program rules or Novice Amateur Association (PHBA-A). Lifetime Memberships - A lifetime membership in PHBA shall be issued for a one-time fee, plus the annual APA.

NOVICE AMATEUR PROGRAM

Novice-Amateur Eligibility.

A person is considered an Novice Amateur exhibitor by PHBA when he/she is no longer eligible to show in PHBA youth activity classes and meets all the qualifications found in rules 5201 A-H and:

- A. Exhibitors cannot have earned a total of one hundred (100) or more lifetime performance points in all PHBA divisions or programs (i.e. open, amateur, novice-amateur, amateur-select or youth) combined: halter, color, longe line, hunter in hand or parade points are not used in calculating Novice Amateur status.
 - 1) Novice Amateur Per Class Credential letter eligibility: The letter is designed for Amateurs who have not achieved twenty-five (25) points in a Novice Amateur class and wish to exhibit in those classes with a credential letter. Amateurs could now choose to have a per Novice Class credential letter to compete until twenty-five (25) points per class is achieved. The Amateur who chooses to compete as a qualified credentialed Novice per class is responsible for requesting a credential letter of eligibility no later than two (2) weeks prior to the desired show.
- B. The Novice Amateur cannot have won a World Championship title in PHBA; EXCEPTION: halter, color, longe line, hunter in hand, parade or novice amateur classes.
- C. The Novice Amateur cannot have won a World Championship title in any other equine organization; EXCEPTION: halter, color, longe line, hunter in hand, parade or novice amateur classes.
- D. The Novice Amateur cannot have earned more than Twenty-Five points in any other equine organization; EXCEPTION: halter, color, longe line classes, hunter in hand or parade classes.
- E. The Novice Amateur cannot have earned more than $5,000 in cash awards in PHBA or any other equine organization; EXCEPTION: halter, color, longe line, hunter in hand or parade classes.
- F. Any individual that has been a horse show judge is ineligible.

AMATEUR PROGRAM

ELIGIBILITY.

Amateur membership is a classification primarily for people competing in PHBA Shows. To be an amateur member you must agree to abide by certain rules. Before submitting your application to PHBA, please carefully read the rules below to ensure you meet amateur eligibility.

Application for amateur membership in Palomino Horse Breeders of America ("the Association") shall become active only upon acceptance of this application by the association. By submitting my application for amateur membership, I agree to and affirm the truth of each of the following statements: I have NOT within the previous five years:

- A. Shown, judged, trained or assisted in training a horse (whether or not a registered Palomino Horse Breeders of America) owned by someone other than myself or an immediate family member for remuneration.
- B. Instructed another person in riding, driving, training or showing a horse for remuneration.
- C. Judged a horse show for remuneration or been an approved horse show judge of any kind (4-H, other breed, and open show).
- D. Held a membership in a professional organization and completed professionally in the events I intend to compete in as a PHBA - approved amateur.

PLEASE NOTE:

"Immediate family member" means the applicant's spouse, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, sibling, half-sibling, step-sibling, spouse's parent, spouse's stepparent, sibling's spouse, half-sibling's spouse, step-sibling's spouse, legal ward or legal guardian.

"Remuneration" means payment of money or other consideration for a service or benefit. Under PHBA rules, premium money is not considered remuneration, but payment of entry fees, expenses, etc, in connection with showing the horse by any person other than the amateur member or their immediate family shall be considered remuneration.

By submitting my application, I hereby verify that:

- A. I agree to comply with PHBA's Rules and Regulations as contained in the current PHBA Official Handbook, and as it may be amended from time to time.
- B. I understand that my AQHA membership privileges are revocable. SHOULD I, FOR ANY REASON, BECOME INELIGIBLE TO COMPETE IN APPROVED AMATEUR CLASSES, I HAVE THE AFFIRMATIVE DUTY TO IMMEDIATELY AND VOLUNTARILY SURRENDER MY PHBA AMATEUR MEMBERSHIP CARD AND REFRAIN FROM FURTHER EXHIBITING IN AMATEUR CLASSES.
- C. I agree that should PHBA find, for any reason, that I am ineligible to compete as an amateur, upon request, I agree to surrender my amateur membership card immediately. I further acknowledge that for violation of PHBA rules, I may be subject to possible disciplinary action and/or fine to a maximum amount of $5,000, together with revocation of amateur points and awards, both for myself and my horse.

The application for amateur membership must be true and correct in each detail. A false statement shall be grounds for possible disciplinary action under PHBA's disciplinary procedure, which includes suspension, fine and/or expulsion from membership.

If an immediate family member owns a horse to be shown by the applicant, the family member must provide proof of sole economic ownership upon request by PHBA.

If applicant is the spouse of a trainer (training or assists in the training or showing of any horse), the applicant must not show a horse in PHBA amateur or open classes that his/her spouse has received payment for during the previous twelve months.

NOVICE YOUTH PROGRAM

PHBA-Youth Memberships

Membership is open to any youth eighteen (18) years of age and younger with the age based on their age as of December 31st of the previous year.

Age requirements

Refer the PHBA Handbook Article 11, Section 8.

- A. The minimum age of a youth exhibitor is five (5) years of age.
- B. If a youth is thirteen (13) years of age on December 31st, of the preceding year. He/she will show as a thirteen (13) year old for the next calendar year, even though he/she may become fourteen (14) within the show year.
- C. The Maximum age is eighteen (18) years. However, if a youth is eighteen (18) years of age on December 31st of the preceding year, he/she will show as an eighteen (18) year-old for the next calendar year, even though he/she may become nineteen (19) with in the show year.

Novice-Youth Eligibility

A person is considered a Novice Youth exhibitor by PHBA when a youth has met the following qualifications for the previous five (5) calendar years as found in:

- A. Exhibitors cannot have earned a total of seventy-five (75) or more lifetime performance points in all PHBA divisions or programs (i.e. open, youth, and novice-youth) combined.
 1. Halter, color and longe line points are not used in calculating Novice Youth status.
 2. Example: 2. Example: Twenty (20) youth showmanship points and thirty (30) open western pleasure points and twenty-five (25) amateur hunter under saddle point equal seventy-five (75) total points, making this exhibitor ineligible for the Novice youth division.
- B. The Novice Youth cannot have won a World Championship title in PHBA; EXCEPTION: halter, color and longe line and novice youth classes.
- C. The Novice Youth cannot have won a World Championship title in any other equine organization; EXCEPTION: halter, color and longe line and Novice Youth classes.
- D. The Novice Youth cannot have earned more that twenty-five points in any other equine organization; EXCEPTION: halter, color or longe line classes.
- E. The Novice Youth cannot have earned more than $5,000 in cash awards in PHBA or any other equine organization; EXCEPTION: halter, color or longe line classes.
- F. Any individual that has been a horse show judge is ineligible.
