NEED TO KNOW MORE ABOUT NMPEA & PHBA?

- PHBA horses (Palomino & Palomino Bred) can be registered at a PHBA sanctioned show prior to showing with completed application, photos, and appropriate fees.
- PHBA youth exhibitors DO NOT have to own a horse to exhibit in PHBA classes. The youth and horse owner must be PHBA members.

Only shows held in New Mexico count towards the NMPEA year-end awards; but horses, exhibitors and owners need not reside in NM. Around New Mexico

4-H State Horse Show, Tucumcari

NMPEA sponsored High Point Palomino Awards at the 4-H State Horse Show in Tucumcari in July. The High Point Senior, Isabella Ivey showing Yeller, was presented with an award halter and lead.

Ranch Horse Challenge

NMPEA contributed to the All Breed Ranch Horse Challenge held at the Green Chile Classic, July 16-17, and Red Chile Fiesta, August 20-21, in Stanley. The High Point Winner of a working saddle was Jeff Boyd. High Point Amateur was Mindie Burch. All Breed participants were also eligible for random drawings for $100 in each division – open, amateur and youth. To be eligible for High Points, exhibitors had to show both shows and in 3 of the 4 ranch challenge classes offered: Working Cowhorse or Boxing, Reining, Ranch Riding and Ranch Trail.

SWQHA Fall Futurity Show

NMPEA awarded High Point Garment Bags to the High Point Palomino Senior Horse, Amateur and Youth at the SWQHA Fall Futurity Show Labor Day weekend in Las Cruces. Sharon McClain and Yvonne Saavedra took home the awards. Congrats!

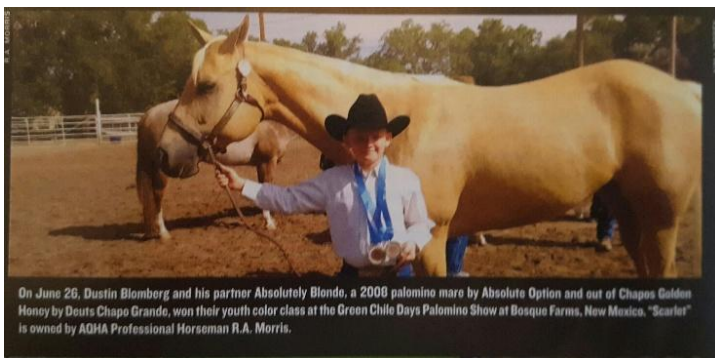

NM State Fair Horse Council Booth

NMPEA provided a palomino horse and volunteers to help at the NM Horse Council Booth at the NM State Fair September 11th. The club also provided free flyers identifying the parts of a horse (of course, a palomino) to fair goers who visited the Horse Council Booth.

AQHA Journal, September 2016

NMPEA youth member, Dustin, was included on the "Snapshots" page in the AQHA September Journal. Dustin won the youth color class under both judges at the Green Chile Days in June.

On June 26, Dustin Blomberg and his partner Absolutely Blonde, a 2008 palomino mare by Absolute Option and out of Chapos Golden Honey by Douts Chape Grande, won their youth color class at the Green Chile Days Palomino Show at Bosque Farms, New Mexico. "Scarlet" is owned by AQHA Professional Horseman R.A. Morris.

Wayne Justus, Western Artist

Wayne and his wife, Cathy, joined us in August at the Red Chile Fiesta with Cathy showing two mares, one palomino and a palomino bred. Last year, Wayne Justus donated a signed and mounted print, "Countin the Strays," to NMPEA to raffle. This year, we'll have another print donated by Wayne to raffle at our awards banquet. In addition to Wayne's many accolades, he was the 2015 AQHA Horse in Art Steeldust Award winner. Wayne & Cathy have also offered to give 20% of any sale from Wayne's website (includes originals, prints and giclees). Anyone buying should tell Wayne that they are supporting NMPEA and the club will receive a check for 20%. Check out Wayne's website; there are many exciting and outstanding originals and prints for sale. Thanks, Cathy and Wayne for these generous donations and your continued support of NMPEA.
